CARRANZA WON'T HOLD PARLEY WITH HUERTA DELEGATES

His Secretary Announces the Chief Will Treat "Only on the Battlefield."

AGENTS AT NEW ORLEANS

Three Leaders Fresh From Saltillo Go on "Important Mission" to Washington.

NEW ORLEANS, June 22.—Carranza will not accept the invitation of the United States Government to send representatives to meet informally with agents of Huerta in any endeavor to select a provisional President of Mexico, according to a statement here today by Alfredo Breceda, private secretary of Gen. Carranza, and a member of the latest commission Carranza is sending to Washington.

Carranza is firm in his attitude that he will not treat with Huerta, except on the battlefield. Breceda told the Associated Press through an interpreter: "We are on a very important mission to Washington, of which we cannot talk, but it is not to meet with representatives of Huerta, formally or informally."

That the commissioners intended to be fully informed of the situation at Washington and Niagara Falls was indicated by the arrival today direct from Washington of J. P. Urduli, secretary of the Constitutional representatives in Washington, who delivered the Carranza note to the mediation conference at Niagara Falls.

Children to See President.
Fresh from a visit to Gen. Carranza, Fernando Iglesias Calderon, a leader of the Liberal party in Mexico, is en route to Washington to confer with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan as a representative of Carranza, but as leader of the Liberal party with Breceda and R. F. Villavieja, a Constitutional representative of Saltillo, he arrived here late yesterday.

Calderon was emphatic today in his declaration that he would not represent Carranza in any negotiations that might end either at Washington or at Niagara Falls. His traveling companions, however, stated that Calderon might act as go-between for the Constitutionalists in whatever negotiations he might be a party to.

THREE-DAY FIANCE DISAPPEARS WITH A WIDOW'S $500

Proposes Almost at First Meeting, Takes Woman's Savings to "Invest."

HE ANSWERS HER "AD"

Hotel Guest Seeking Housekeeper Tells Mrs. Minnie Bartlett Panic Looms.

Mrs. Minnie Bartlett, 22 years old, a widow, of 2925 Dickson street, drew $500 from the bank and gave it to a "nice talking" man who proposed marriage to her 24 hours after he first met her. He started downtown, saying he was going to invest the money in United States Steel bonds. She has not seen him since.

Sunday, June 14, Mrs. Bartlett inserted a newspaper want ad asking employment as a housekeeper. The next day she received a letter signed "H. C. Harper, room 609 Marquette Hotel."

Wanted a Housekeeper.
The writer said he was a widower, 40 years old, and that he wanted a housekeeper who would appreciate a good home and in whom he could place confidence. He asked her to call him by telephone at noon or at 6 p. m.

Mrs. Bartlett Tuesday told a reporter she did not telephone, but that last Thursday "Harper" called at her home and introduced himself as the man who had answered her advertisement. He said he was from Brazil, Ind., and had one child. Mrs. Bartlett was undecided as to whether she would become his housekeeper, she said, and he suggested that she take him to board at her home until she made up her mind.

That night he took her to a picture show. All through the evening, he said, he expressed gloomy views as to the financial outlook. He told her there was going to be a big panic and many banks would fail. It was unsafe for anyone to keep money in a bank. He had drawn out all of his own savings and deposited them in United States Steel bonds.

The next day, Mrs. Bartlett saved "Harper" proposed marriage to her, and she accepted him. He then talked about the panic being ahead, and with his proposal still ringing in her ears, Mrs. Bartlett asked him if he would not take her money and invest it with him. He would.

Took $500 From Bank.
Yesterday Mrs. Bartlett went to the Mercantile Trust Co. and drew out $500 of the $500 which represented her savings of 10 years, first as a shoe worker and later as a boarding house keeper. She gave him the money at 1 p. m. and he said he would go right down to the "Exchange" and invest it, and return to her home at 4 p. m.

When Harper did not come back at the appointed time, she went to the Marquette Hotel, where she found that Harper had registered from Birmingham, Ala. June 12, and checked out last Thursday, the day he first met her. She went to Union Station and found that trains for Brazil, Ind., and Birmingham, Ala., had departed about 3 p. m.

In a valet which "Harper" left at her home Mrs. Bartlett found two shirts, several collars, a safety razor and Elks' Lodge receipts issued at Brazil and Birmingham to William H. Rothchild.

Mrs. Bartlett told a reporter that while at her home "Harper" removed his coat and rolled up his sleeves and showed tattoo marks on his right arm. One was the initials W. H. R. The others were the names Augusta, Florence, and Addie. He told her these were the names of his deceased wife, his mother and his sister.

Y. M. C. A. MUST PAY $2768 IN TAXES ON ITS PROPERTY

Supreme Court Decides Association May Be Assessed on Part of Building.

The St. Louis Young Men's Christian Association must pay $2768.32 taxes on its property, under a decision given Tuesday by the Supreme Court, according to information received from Jefferson City.

The Y. M. C. A. claimed exemption under the law exempting charitable and religious organizations from taxation, but Collector Koehn took the position that, as a part of the Central Y. M. C. A. Building is used for commercial purposes, being rented to business concerns, it should be subject to taxation to that extent. The law grants exemption on an acre of ground, when used exclusively for religious or charitable purposes.

Koehn accordingly made a tax levy against the Y. M. C. A., and a test case was made, which was taken to the Supreme Court.

The Y. M. C. A. building has been free from taxation since it was erected 17 years ago, on the theory that it was exempt under the law. The revenue from the rental of a part of its building helped to support the organization.

Judge Brown, in his opinion, expressed sympathy with the "exalted purposes" of the organization, but said the law exempted only a certain amount of exclusive use of a building, and that the words "dominant use" or "principal use" could not be substituted.

BARBERS AND LAWYERS HELP IN WHEAT FIELD

Hoxie (Kan.) Business Men Aid Farmers When Imported Hands Quit Because of Heat.

Hoxie, Kan., June 22.—Hoxie is almost deserted. The men have gone to the wheat fields. The rush started today, when farmers came into town lamenting the fact that harvest hands imported from the East had quit their jobs because of the heat.

"We've got to have help quick, and you fellows have got to help us," declared a farmer at a meeting of business men.

Hoxie was equal to the call. Half an hour after the gathering dispersed the town barbers posted hastily painted signs on their doors reading: "Shaves and haircuts on Saturdays only."

The doors of the courthouses were locked and every county official donned his old clothes; merchants turned their stores over to their young women clerks; lawyers forgot their fees and the editor placed his wife in charge of the "shop."

Then the army of business men went forth to help their brothers in the harvest.

WIFE IS ARRESTED IN DEATH MYSTERY AFTER TWO DAYS

Mrs. Harry Enxinos, Whose Husband Died of Bullet Wound, Found on Street.

Mrs. Jeanette Enxinos, 21 years old, was arrested when walking west on Chestnut street, between Sixth and Seventh streets, at 1 p. m., Tuesday, after a two days' search for her, following the fatal shooting of her husband, Harry Enxinos, who had been known to the police as "Yellow." Before their marriage, on May 5, last, Mrs. Enxinos was Jeanette O'Brien of 46 South Sixth street.

Heavily veiled in black and dressed in deep mourning, Mrs. Enxinos was walking amid the noonday crowds when Sergt. Wade Matthews stopped her, saying she was the wife of the man who had been shot.

"Is this Jenny O'Brien?" he asked her.

"No. It is Jenny Enxinos—the one you're looking for," she answered, and broke into hysterical sobbing. While waiting for the patrol wagon at Market and Seventh streets, the officer questioned her closely, but she refused to answer. "I'll tell all I know at the inquest," was all she would say.

Palmer in Patrol Wagon.
Mrs. Enxinos was questioned, but refused to make any statement. Once she said: "I had to do it," then cried: "Don't ask me any questions," and refused to talk. She is held for the coroner.

Harry Enxinos died in the city hospital Monday morning from a bullet wound in his abdomen. He refused to tell who had shot him, and said to his sister, Myrtle Enxinos, of 1115 North Fifteenth street, who was at his side: "Don't you tell anything, either."

The wife was represented just between the two other standards.

SUFFRAGISTS TO FILE INITIATIVE PETITIONS

Delegation to Take Roll of 33,000 Names to the Secretary of State.

A delegation from the St. Louis Equal Suffrage League will carry suffrage initiative petitions to Jefferson City within a few days and give them to Secretary of State Rosch.

The petitions contain 25,000 names and have been obtained from districts outside of St. Louis, and from the three congressional districts in St. Louis. This comprises 5 per cent of the voters in each district, and gives the suffragists the right to present the question of equal suffrage to Missouri voters in November.

Mrs. Alice Curtice Moyer, secretary of the local league, said the fact that the proposed amendment will be numbered 11 does not frighten the suffragists in the least.

U. S. JUDGE SPEER NOT IMPEACHABLE; ACQUITTAL DENIED

Congressional Subcommittee Finds Series of Legal Oppressions and Abuse of Judicial Discretion Demand Condemnation and Criticism but No Senate Trial.

USEFULNESS OF COURT IMPAIRED BY CHARGES
Minority Report by Representative Volstead Completely Exonerates Jurist and Denounces Methods Used by Investigators.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The subcommittee regrets its inability to either recommend a complete acquittal of Judge Speer of all culpability so far as these charges are concerned, on the one hand, or an impeachment on the other hand. This was the conclusion submitted to the House Judiciary Committee today by the special subcommittee that for months has been investigating charges of official misconduct against Emory Speer of Macon, Ga., federal judge for the Southern District of Georgia.

The report, after an exhaustive review of evidence with severe criticisms, held that some of Judge Speer's official actions "tend to approach condition of tyranny and oppression, but recommended that no further proceedings be had by the House."

Report to Full Committee.
These conclusions now rank with the full committee as Judiciary, which is expected to report them to the House for final disposition of the case before the adjournment of the present session of Congress. The subcommittee's criticisms of the official position of the representatives (North Carolina), Fitzhugh (Illinois), Democrats, and Volstead (Minnesota), Republicans.

Volstead, in a minority report, similarly declares that there is no evidence warranting impeachment, will attack the majority of the subcommittee for criticizing a Judge who declares not guilty of any impeachable offense. Volstead's report completely exonerates Judge Speer.

Nineteen charges were filed with the committee. They alleged, among other things, that Judge Speer entertained matters beyond his court's jurisdiction; allowed excessive trustee fees to a personal friend; used his official position for preference of his son-in-law, A. H. Hayward, abused his authority by a malicious use of government paid employees, violated laws regarding drawing of jurors, and dissipated bankrupt estates by appointing unnecessary officials and allowing excessive fees.

Another charge was that, in the case of Henry Jamison, a Macon negro, Judge Speer defied the mandates of the Supreme Court of the United States all the Circuit Court of Appeals.

Committee's Conclusion.
The subcommittee's conclusions follow: "The conclusion of the subcommittee deduced from the evidence taken and from the construction of the precedents of impeachment trials, is that at the present time satisfactory evidence sufficient to support a conviction upon a trial by the Senate is not obtainable."

"In the conduct of the hearings the committee was extremely careful and did not confine the witnesses to the giving of technically legal evidence. Much evidence of a hearsay nature was received. The committee felt justified in such a course in the light of the fact that it came to the attention of the committee that many witnesses were apprehensive of the consequences of giving evidence against Judge Speer in the event of his acquittal."

"This feeling and the general disposition on the part of individuals to protect themselves against what was termed the 'wrath' of Judge Speer kept from the committee the names of the witnesses and a knowledge of the facts in their possession."

"Many of the witnesses whose testimony would be absolutely necessary to sustain some of the charges made are dead. Others have removed from the Southern District of Georgia and their whereabouts is unknown."

Another phase of the record is that it details a large number of official acts on the part of Judge Speer which are in themselves legal, yet, when taken together, develop into a system tending to approach a condition of tyranny and oppression.

"There has been an iniquitous exercise of judicial discretion, many instances of which have been frequently criticized, where the cases in which they were committed have been reviewed by the Courts of Appeal, while to others litigants were unable financially to prosecute appeals. That the power of the Court has been exercised."

'AMERICA' FLOATS 'LIKE A DUCK,' FLYING TEST TODAY

Launching of the Airship Built for Wanamaker Transatlantic Flight Pleases Aviator Porte—Craft Is Christened.

By Lieut. John Cyril Porte, R. N. Copyright, 1914, by Press Publishing Co. (New York World.)
HAMMONDSPOORT, N. Y., June 22.—The America floated like a duck when she took the water yesterday afternoon. She did all she was asked to do and did it beautifully.

She showed the buoyancy of a canoe. Of course, she did not carry her petrol and cylinder oil and other parts of her final load, which total around 2000 pounds more than she weighed yesterday, but she rode so easily and kept her center of gravity with such firmness, we are quite sure as far as her ability in the water goes, we are relieved from all doubt.

The next question to be answered is as to her behavior in the air and that will be put today. The original plan of flying yesterday was abandoned because the launching was delayed until late in the afternoon.

The flyer that the sportsmanship of Lordman Wanamaker made possible, for Glenn H. Curtiss to construct looks a trim and worthy craft. There is a business-like air about her that seemed to impress the thousands or so people who crowded down to the trial field to witness the program.

"During the launching and earlier, while she was christened, the boat wore the flag of the Union and a small Aero Club of America banner. It was impossible to obtain a British flag, which Mr. Curtiss tried to do in my honor, but England was represented by one of the newspaper correspondents thought of the expediency of sticking a British stamp bearing the army of England and a vignette of King George to the nose; so my native land was represented just between the two other standards."

She slides into the Water.
To get the feel of her I took my place in the cabin or conning tower as she slid into the waters of Lake Keuka. She went overboard at 4:22. The whole 35 feet of her length sat in the water with a feeling of aliveness. Her wings, spreading 78 feet from tip to tip, sprouted from her midships and rested their ends on the pontoon as the water as if they were feather-weights.

It was about two hours earlier in the afternoon that the boat got her name. The workmen in Curtiss' shop built a little stand in front of her. There Mr. Curtiss, wearing a large bouquet, took his place and with him stood Miss Katherine Mason, the pretty 16-year-old girl who won the draw for the honor of the christening. I was the third on the platform.

We rigged up a stand from which the bottle of native champagne, ribbon wound and tied between two horses' heads, swung. The bottle was to be dashed against the nose of the boat, whereupon it was to break. Miss Mason, speaking a little verse, drove the flask forward, but it didn't break. Then I tried my hand, but again it refused to yield its contents.

Thereupon I got off the platform, and making the bottle fast to the bow smashed it with a swing of a 10-pound sledging hammer. We got what we wanted. The bottle broke into a thousand pieces and the America was well baptized with the champagne. So was I.

As grim old Death in the tenements chuckles a welcome to the cruel hot wave that strengthens his claim on the lives of the little babies of the poor, the splendid Children of the League redouble their efforts to drive him away from the babies whose slaughter he is plotting.

These Children of the League, working for the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund that saves the babies, are a dauntless lot. They fought at hand-grips with grim old Death last summer and whipped him into full flight away from the tenement tots.

They feel sure they can do it again this summer. Anyway, they are going to do their very best. It won't be their fault if even one little baby dies in the sweltering tenements. They are noble Milk Fund on Wednesday evening, July 1, and announce that the management of Delmar Garden kindly has donated the use of the Delmar Garden Theater for their entertainment on that date.

There are more than twenty juvenile players in this company. They will present a delightful comedy of joyous youth entitled "The District School," and will follow this with a clever vaudeville program.

Those who will take part in the performance are: Marie Stephens, Marie Walsh, Dorothy Heath, Margaret Heath, Dorothy Hitchens, Marie Johnson, Marguerite Grable, May Colman, Margaret Cosgrove, George White, John Roden, Harry Roerle, Raymond Duffy, Walter Craig, William Hanley, Frank Niebur, Ed Watson and Lillian Shipley.

These young people are prosecuting a vigorous campaign for success, and they hope to attract an audience that will crowd Delmar Garden Theater to its capacity.

Homer Fitzpatrick, 168 Blackstone avenue, has secured the services of Miss Cecil Fox to sing several numbers, has borrowed a film from a neighborhood picture show, probably a Pathe weekly, and he himself will render several selections on the violin, for the show that he is producing for the benefit of the Pure Milk Fund this evening.

Homer Fitzpatrick is a violinist of three years' standing and does exceptionally well for a lad of 11 years.

In addition to the above features of the entertainment, Homer has planned to have ice cream and cake for sale, at 5 cents a plate, or "as much as you want to give." Both the ice cream and the cake have been donated.

The show ran Monday night also. The admission is 5 cents.

A number of helpful children gave a lawn party at 6229 Ella avenue and earned $12.25 for the Pure Milk Fund to save the babies. Those who took part were Norma Deggendorf, Aetna Lynch, Delphine Lynch, Emily Madden, Lola Ackerman, Hilda Griese and Matilda Davies. They wish to return thanks to the Larimer-Bowman-Carpenter Ice Cream Co., the Union Dairy Co. and others for donations and assistance.

The Roosevelt Girls' Club of 5709 Roosevelt place gave a Pure Milk Fund benefit, selling numbered cards redeemable with a corresponding number of pennies, and earned $7.10 with which to help save the tenement babies.

Those taking part were Vera Beresh, 5709 Roosevelt place; Jeannette Gellhausen, 5648; Marguerite Weber, 5633; Ethel Downes, 5667; and Alice Stafford, 5653, all of Roosevelt place. The numbered cards were drawn from a box and redeemed as drawn.

Four little girls conducted a lemonade stand on the lawn of 4529 Maffitt avenue two afternoons last week and earned $2.50 with which to help the Pure Milk Fund rescue the little ones of the poor.

Their names are Lucille Poppenhouse, 4529 Maffitt; Marion Coleman, 4531; Mildred Meier, 4777; and Emma Hake, 4775 Maffitt avenue.

Two girls and three boys conducted a lemonade stand at 1607 Union avenue and earned $2.25 for the Pure Milk Fund. Those taking part were Verna Withaus and Glen Withaus, 1607 Union; Rosie Passer and Morris Passer, 1330 Patton avenue; and Norval Tate, 5311 Theodora avenue.

Wesley May, 2110A Bent avenue, and Stella Bush, 4225 Hartford street, sold lemonade and soda water for the benefit of the Pure Milk Fund and earned $1.75 with which to help save the babies.

Helen and Sabina Handley of 3049 Whittier street, and Agnes Schneider of 3031 Whittier street gave a pretty entertainment for the benefit of the Pure Milk Fund and earned $2.50 with which to help save the tenement babies.

They presented four little plays entitled "The Days in the Week," "Cutie and Jack," "The Stormy Day," and "Playful Mary." Helen Handley sang

EMPEROR CARRIED MORE LIFE BOATS THAN REQUIRED

Number of Life Belts Also Found to Have Been in Excess of the Regulations.

QUEBEC, June 23.—When the Empress of Ireland wreck inquiry was resumed today, Capt. Walsh, marine superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, continued his testimony in regard to the number of boats and life belts carried by the liner. In each case the number called for by regulations was found to have been exceeded.

C. S. Haight of counsel for owners of the collier Stord, which rammed the Empress, questioned the witness about the promotion system in vogue in the Canadian Pacific Railway marine service. Capt. Walsh said that the command of the Empress was the highest position in the service. "Seniority is not the only qualification for promotion," asked Haight. "No."

"The more efficient men get the better captaincies?"

"That is so," said Walsh.

"And does not efficiency include making regular trips?"

"No," said Walsh. "Our captains are ordered that they must take no risks when the lives of so many passengers would be involved. The ability to make regular trips does not enter into it."

Life Belt Produced.

A life belt, similar to those with which the Empress was fitted, was produced.

"Is it customary to give instructions to passengers in the use of the belts?" asked Justice McLeod.

"I think not," said Capt. Walsh.

"I confess that in an emergency I would hardly know what to do with that bundle," said the Justice.

Capt. Walsh put the belt on and tied it at the neck.

G. W. Wetherpoon of New York, who had charge of the diving operations at the wreck, described the trips made to the vessel by Edward Coshoon, who was afterwards injured in his work and died.

Diver's Wreck Theory.

He said the diver had established that the Empress was listing on her starboard side, with the bows pointing to the northeast. According to the diver's theory, said Wetherpoon, the vessel sank with her smokestacks practically parallel with the water, but the force of gravitation tended to bring her upright again, and when she struck the bottom she went back on her side.

Lord Mersey, chairman of the committee, asked what it was intended to show by this evidence.

Haight said: "It establishes, my lord, that the vessel as she lies is pointing north 45 degrees east. This is practically the angle on which we say she was heading when the Stord struck her."

SCORNS RING HE STOLE SO OWNER PROSECUTES

Man Makes Mistake by Saying Diamonds of Sleeper He Robbed Are Paste.

Joseph Smith, a city hospital attache, and John Wells of 1212 Dolman street, were among those who were arrested beneath the trees in Lafayette Park to indoor lodging Monday night. Smith awoke at 3 a. m., Tuesday, and found he had been robbed of a watch and $1. When Wells awoke he missed a ring and a magnificent glass.

Patrolmen investigating the thefts gave the other sleepers the "once over" and arrested a man who said he was Frank Smith, 38 years old, living at the Pacific Hotel, Ninth and Market streets. In his pockets they found the property of Wells and Joseph Smith.

Wells was inclined to be lenient with the prisoner until he heard him say scornfully he had bought the ring at a 1 and 10 cent store. He thought that was adding insult to injury and decided to prosecute. The ring was set with an opal surrounded by 23 diamonds.

Heavily? "Oh, my, yes," is the answer. Get it at the drug store, 3c.

ROBBER OF POOR BOX PROVES TO BE SEXTON

The sound of a saw grating through metal attracted the attention of patrolman passing St. Michael's Church, Marsh street and Kennerly avenue, about 10 p. m., Monday, and he summoned the Rev. Father Francis H. Haast. Inside they found the sexton, Louis Mallette, 44 years old, of 202 Lincoln avenue, sawing a padlock from the poor box.

Mallette confessed he had robbed the poor box on 10 previous occasions in the last two months. He is held pending application for a warrant.

The sexton carried a key to the outer door of the poor box, but the inner box, containing $1.75, was secured with two padlocks. He had saved one of the locks away and was at work on the other when caught.

SPENCER TO REPLY TO QUESTIONS AT CHARTER RALLIES

Freeholder Will Attend Each Noonday Meeting at Eighth and Locust.

CHARTER MEETINGS.

TUESDAY NIGHT.
Eleventh Ward mass meeting. South-west Turner Hall, Ohio and Potomac. Speakers, Mayor Kiel and C. W. Rutledge.

Workingmen's Mutual Aid Association. Dodder Hall, Twentieth and Dodder. Speaker, Samuel Rosenfeld.
Twenty-first Ward citizens' mass meeting. Mount Moriah Temple, Natural Bridge and Garrison. Speaker, John H. Gundlach.
Clifton Heights Christian Church. Tamm and Marmaduke. Speakers, E. A. Vogt and T. J. Dalton.
Twentieth Ward regular Republican organization. Odeon, Grand and Finney. Speaker, Mayor Kiel.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT.
Tenth Ward citizens' mass meeting. Concordia Turner Hall, Thirtieth and Arsenal. Speakers, Mayor Kiel, William Preston Hill, E. A. Vogt and C. W. Rutledge.
West Walnut Park Improvement Association. Mimka and Garesche avenues. Speaker, Samuel Rosenfeld.
Twenty-fourth Ward citizens' mass meeting. Caesar's Hall, Arsenal and Brannon. Speakers, Mayor Kiel, C. W. Rutledge, Selden P. Spencer and Lawrence McDaniel.

Former Judge Selden P. Spencer, vice-chairman of the Board of Freeholders, will attend each of the noonday meetings at Eighth and Locust streets to answer all questions pertaining to the proposed new city charter. Such a keen interest has been aroused in the charter that there are voters at every meeting who wish to be informed on some particular provision. The meetings begin at 12:15 p. m. and close at 1:15, there being four 15-minute speeches.

The effect of the charter campaign is being shown every night, when the new charter is indorsed by different organizations. It was indorsed Monday night by the St. Louis Association of Master Plumbers, the St. Louis Dye and Cleaners' Association, the Vortex Club, the Twenty-sixth Ward Republican League Club, the Mill Creek Valley Improvement Association and the Optical Association of St. Louis.

Democratic Committee to Meet.
The Democratic City Committee will meet at 4 p. m. at 629 Chestnut street, to act on the charter. It is the impression of Democratic leaders that the committee will pass a formal resolution indorsing the charter, but that nearly every member of the committee will vote against it, and work against it as much as he can.

Many members of the committee are themselves candidates for office, or are supporting certain candidates in whom they are interested. Some of the Democratic leaders have advised the committee that the new charter is sure to be adopted at the special election, June 30, and that for the Democratic committee to work against it would invite the opposition of the charter supporters in the general election.

William P. Brady, widely known as "Sporty Brady," who is running for the Legislature in one of the West End districts, said Tuesday he was for the charter, but believed it would be defeated two to one. That is the general attitude taken by all the Democratic ward workers. They assert they are personally for the charter, but are fearful it will be defeated. The Democratic House of Delegates combine, which supported the Scherrer-Cap. Troll Alton & Mississippi free bridge approach scheme, is actively working against the charter.

John R. McCarthy, one of the Democratic leaders of the House of Delegates, and one of the principal supporters of the Alton & Mississippi scheme, is working industriously against the charter. McCarthy was for many years identified with the old Butler faction of the Democratic party.

The speakers at the noonday meeting Wednesday at Eighth and Locust streets will be Dr. William H. Pucha, Llan E. Brokaw, John H. Gundlach and Wilbur B. Jones.

Davis Tells of Benefits.
Park Commissioner Davis gave an interview Tuesday showing how the city will be able to do much more to alleviate suffering under the new charter than under the old.

"When a present charter was drafted in 1878," he said, "the people considered only the physical side of municipal government. The important things to them at that time were the building of streets, alleys, sewers, bridges and the problems affecting the business side of the municipality."

"The social side—the welfare of the public—has been an important development in the last few years. This includes the better care of health and living conditions, the construction of swimming pools, playgrounds and recreation fields for the physical betterment of the city's residents."

"This has extended even to more sanitary jails and the proper treatment of prisoners. The adequate control of juvenile offenders and children summoned into the Juvenile Court is a modern problem along this line."

Opens Way for Development.
The present charter does not authorize St. Louis to enlarge this playground and recreation work to the extent it is being taken up in other progressive cities, where the work is proving of incalculable value to the youngsters."

"The new charter opens the way for future development, gives broad powers and makes possible more efficient municipal service work, which is impossible now."

"It brings together in one department the various divisions having control of this work, and puts them under one general head, all working to the same end."

"The playgrounds and recreation largely health work, yet the park and health departments are entirely separated under the present charter and have no legal co-operation."

Majority of Votes Cast Will Adopt the New Charter

A MAJORITY of the votes cast will pass the proposed new city charter at the special election, June 30.

If only 100 votes should be cast at the election and 51 of them were for the charter and 49 against it, it would be adopted.

There seems to be a widespread belief that a two-thirds majority is required. Many of the speakers in opposition to the charter have tried to create this impression.

This erroneous impression probably grows out of the fact that a two-thirds majority is necessary to pass a bond issue.

A three-fifths majority is necessary to amend the charter.

But, a majority of the votes cast is all that is required to pass the charter.

"There is a distinct relations between the playgrounds and the Juvenile Court, yet they are widely separated. The Industrial School also is a part of the playground and recreation scheme, but is operated under separate powers."

Big Feature of Government.

"The new charter places the whole problem under one head—the Department of Public Welfare—which now becomes one of the most important features of the municipal government."

"The Board of Public Service, of which the head of the Department of Public Welfare is a member, will give close co-operation to the welfare and public safety divisions. At present there is no specific relation between the welfare division and the police power."

"The new charter gives an opportunity for a tremendous advance by the city in the care of the poor and unfortunate under its control, and is in fact a people's charter."

Practical Prescription Against Stomach Acidity

Nine-tenths of all cases of stomach trouble nowadays are caused by too much acid. In the beginning the stomach itself is not diseased, but if this acid condition is allowed to continue, the acid is very likely to eat into the stomach walls and produce stomach ulcers which may render a radical surgical operation necessary even to prolong life. Therefore, an "acid stomach" is really a dangerous condition and should be treated seriously. It is utterly useless to take pepin and ordinary stomach tablets. The excess acid or stomach hyperacidity must be neutralized by the administration of an efficient antacid. For this purpose the best remedy is Bismarck's Magnesia taken in teaspoonful doses in a fourth of a glass of water after each meal. Larger quantities may be used if necessary, as it is absolutely harmless. Be sure to ask for the Bismarck Magnesia, as other forms of magnesia make effective mouth washes, but they have not the same action on the stomach. Bismarck's Magnesia can be obtained at Johnson Bros. Drug Co., 1015-1017 N. 10th St., and at all drug stores. Bismarck's Magnesia is sold in 10-cent and 25-cent boxes. Bismarck's Magnesia is sold in 10-cent and 25-cent boxes.

Browns and White Sox Gain Points and Positions in Inter-

The intersectional battling between the Western teams of the American League and the Eastern clubs, which ended Monday, proved dismal for the Nationals of Washington and the Yankees of New York. On the Western jaunt the Nationals, rated a penand lost 11. At the beginning of the series, the Nationals were in second place, and by winning the first game in the West from the Browns, leaped into the league lead. After that, however, the club slumped and today is in fourth position. The Griffins lost 35 points in the percentage table.

The Yankees won three games and lost 10, losing 31 points in the standings of descending from sixth to seventh.

Richard Harding Davis Reviews Valor of the Men of the Utah at Vera Cruz Ship That Lost Two Dead, 15 Wounded, Comes Home

Author Writes of the Officers and 46 Others Recommended by Admiral Fletcher for Medals of Honor and for "Conspicuous Acts of Valor."

By Richard Harding Davis
(Copyright by the Wheeler Syndicate Inc.)

NEW YORK, June 23.—Yesterday
the battleship Utah, with Capt. John H.
Gibbons commanding, Commander F. H.
Clark as executive, Lieutenant-Commander W. R. White as navigator and all the other officers and men who helped to capture Vera Cruz, came home. Six months ago, with snow on her decks, the Utah left the Brooklyn Navy Yard and backed her way through the ice in Ambrige Channel. Last week, in the hot harbor of Vera Cruz, to the envious eyes of the fleet, she showed at the mast a homeward bound pennant. It was extemporized from a commission pennant and lest there should be any doubt as to where she was bound, as she passed her sister ships her band played "Home, Sweet Home."
She comes home bringing her laurels with her, laurels won by her men under fire when in the two days' fighting she lost two killed and 15 wounded; laurels won in the engine room, for the big re-
"E" on her smoke stack stands for efficiency, and laurels in the form of silver medals won in contest with all the fleet by the smartness of her signallers and by the brawn and muscle of her racing crews.
And with the complacency that comes

RICHARD HARDING DAVIS.

with the knowledge that every man did his duty, she awaits still further honors.
For Admiral Fletcher has commended her officers for "eminent and conspicuous courage," has named two of her petty officers for the medal of honor, and recommended for "conspicuous acts of valor" 46 of her enlisted men. So, if Secretary Daniels feels the same way moved about they are carried by two men. In action they rest upon tripods like those you see supporting a motorcycle when it is not in action.

Holds 45-Pound Gun to Shoulder.
Finding that the tripods slipped upon the smooth pavements and asphalt, Smith picked up the gun and placing it at his shoulder fired it as one fires a rifle. When you consider the weight of the gun, the good practice Smith made with it in sweeping the barricades and roof tops and that it fires 200 bullets a minute, the performance is remarkable.
I should hate to have Smith hit me a blow from a shoulder that can manoeuvre a minute would be long remembered.
Another record was established by Ensign G. B. Junkin. He was wounded three times; one bullet crossed his arm, another caught him on the shin and a third passed through his cap and knocked him off his feet. It was exactly as though someone had hit him on the top of the head with a night-stick.
"What did you think it was?" I asked him.
"I didn't think," said Junkin, "because I thought I was dead."
Ensign Junkin is undoubtedly being preserved by an all-wise providence for a most useful career.
Boatswain F. Schults was in charge of the armed picket boat of the Utah and, together with the picket boats of the Florida, was ordered to draw upon his launch the fire from the naval academy which was turned upon the bluejackets. In performing this has-ardous duty the boat was hit many times and two of Schults' command were wounded and one died. For thus making a target of himself to save his comrades, the Admiral neglected to mention Schults, so his shipmates asked that he be mentioned in this article.

A "boy officer" who performed unusual duties to the satisfaction of everybody was Paul F. Foster, commanding the third company of the Utah battalion. The fall fell to his lot, and for six days Foster, who is only 24 years old, was—in a city of 40,000 Mexicans and 5000 Americans—Chief of Police, Provost Marshal, Lord Chief Justice and Executioner.

Before this terrible judge of 24 years came murderers, "snipers," thieves and others. Foster expected to turn over his detail to an officer of high rank, but, so well satisfied were his superiors that for a week he remained chief of the detail.
He dispensed punishment according to his own idea. Rich young Mexicans brought before him for creating disorder to whom a fine would have meant nothing, he made sweep the streets while their friends sat under the portales and laughed at them. Murderers he placed under guard and forced them to dig graves for the dead.

Garibaldi—Italia's Great Patriot

In the cause of Personal and National Liberty this modern Riem of sunny Italy would have gladly laid down his life. It inspired him to deeds of immortal grandeur, of superb valor and of boundless suffering. Garibaldi would not have legislative tyranny of any kind enter into his own private life any more than will our millions of liberty-loving Italian citizens. His flaming soul scorned any legislation which would prohibit ALL because ONE man out of thousands imbibes in glutton-ous quantities. He knew that the light wines of Italy and the barley brews of Germany are beneficial to humanity.
Upon an old Germanic basis 57 years ago Anheuser-Busch, brewers of Budweiser, established their brand. The Constitution of the United States is the sole authority upon which they launched their business in America. Every day of these 57 years has been devoted to the brewing of an honest Barley-malt and Saazer Hop brew—the kind that spells Temperance throughout the world. Seven thousand, five hundred people are daily required to keep pace with the public demand for Budweiser.
Its sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles. ANHEUSER-BUSCH - ST. LOUIS
